Pupils and teachers of Plymouth Friends' school on Tuesday afternoon of last week gave a most interesting pageant, when students most creditably presented "An Old English May Day Festival." It was a musical operatta representing old English days. The spacious and beautiful lawn, shaded as it is with large stately trees, made an ideal setting for the pageant. On a mound which served as a stage, was enacted various games and frolics of olden times. Villagers dressed in the most brilliant and fantastic costumes danced and sang in "merrie" glee upon the village green, while the fiddler swelled out the music until it was almost impossible to keep one's feet still, as the participants swung along through the games and folk dances, vibrating with the rythm of the old tunes; their mellow voices filling the air with the quaint refrains. The town crier in pompous apparel and with lusty voice acted as master of the ceremonies, while the Herald proclaimed the coming of bold Robin Hood and his band. From her throne the May queen, surrounded by attendants, presided over the festivities. The age old May Pole dance completed the numbers and produced a happy tableau as all joined in the final jollification.

SCHOOL WORK IS COMMENDED.

Excellent Progress Evidenced in Ambler Schools.

Exhibition of Pupils' Work Shown in the Several Grades of Each Building—Students, Teachers and Directors Alike Are Congratulated.

Each year the citizens of Ambler and vicinity, and especially the parents, are given an opportunity to see the work done by the pupils of the Ambler public schools. This opportunity was offered last Friday afternoon and evening, and it is safe to say that more people availed thmeselves than in any previous year. Teachers and pupils alike are proud of the work done, and each member of the faculty stood at her post and with pleasure and pardonable pride pointed out the substantial progress made by the scholars in her class. The increased interest in the work of the pupils, there is no doubt, is directly traced to the new organization in the borough known as the Home and School league, the members of which turned out in force to secure a knowleged of what is being done in the schools. Those who visited the Mattison avenue school were simply amazed at the work there, because it is a fact that most of these pupils are of foreign parents, a number of whom are scarcely able to speak English. Miss May Ryenar, who is assistant supervising principal, and teacher of First A grade, was the receipient of many commendations by the visitors for the most excellent progress made by the pupils. Sharing in these complimentary references were: Miss Phipps and Miss Paulin, of First B; Miss Styer, Second B. The pupils of this grade are but seven years of age, yet by their work they show the splendid progress, and which is so evident in both penmanship and drawing. In the latter work their illustrations are of a very helpful nature, presenting the seasons of the year. A visit to Miss Pyle's room, the Second A, shows the same marked progress, and again the work is found to be of a high order that it also called forth favorable comment from visitors. While Miss Pyle's pupils also did excellent work in the regular course of instruction, yet it was in the execution of the drawing subjects that elicited the most favorable criticism.

What has been said of Miss Pyle's work and that of her pupils, may also be said with regard to Miss Peterson, teacher in Third B; Miss Faust, teacher in Third A; Miss Lightkep, teacher in Fourth B; Miss Whiteside, teacher in Fourth A, and Miss Moyer, Fifth B.

In the latter's rooms pupils are fitted for transfer to the Forest avenue school, and much credit is due Miss Whiteside and Miss Moyer for the careful training the pupils receive for advancement. In visiting the grades and the high school in the Forest avenue building this year there is but one opinion to render, and that is that the work is beyond expectation, and to Supervising Principal J. M. Fisher is given much credit for the splendid success of the teaching corps. The manual training room was first visited. Miss Sarah A. Brunner is the teacher in this department, and many useful things were seen and which were well made. The large pieces like library tables, music cabinets, book cases and racks, floor lamps and medicine closets reflect the care deovted to teaching the pupils. This was also true of the smaller objects, the most beautiful of which were the serving and flowers trays.

In visiting the several rooms, taught by Miss Gear, Miss Coyle, Miss Garrett, Miss Halloway and Mrs. Robert Smith there is some evidence of the excellent progress made in the Mattison avenue school. Interest centered greatly in the sewing and cooking as taught by Helen Bean. In beginning with the Seventh grade the sewing work of the pupils was carefully inspected and as one passed from room to room the advance of the pupils is marked by the well made article produced by the needle. Underwear and dresses, some of the latter were beautiful comprised the main display. The one local organization of the borough that will profit by the work of the pupils this year is the Ambler Branch of the Needlework Guild of America, which will receive a number of garments from the hands of the scholars.

In the high school the work was so arranged this year as to show the progress of the pupils from his or her first year to the final year of the seniors, which very readily portrayed the advancement of the pupils. Leather work was taught for the first time in the school this year, and some excellent pieces were made. Millinery also comprised a new subject and there was an excellent sample of this work on exhibition.

The mechanical drawings were in keeping with former years, as was also the work in the commercial department. Miss Violet M. Donahue is the teacher in charge of the latter work, and the splendid results obtained by her pupils last year are in evidence this year, and it is stated that some of the pupils will take positions as stenographers directly after leaving school

The excellent progress made in the Ambler public schools is also attributable to the cooperation of the board of directors: George Y Styer, president Phillip Maas, secretary; Rev. Ralph L. Mayberry, Dr. George Robinson and Arthur Nichols. No board of directors along the North Penn, or elsewhere, for that matter, take more interest in the schools nor are more careful in expending the taxpayers' money than the Ambler school board. They, too, are to be congratulated for next year.

Social Service Work Discussed.

A meeting of more than ordinary importance to the community was held last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. H. Frazer Harris, Hawes lane, Springfield township for the purpose of outlining the work that is being done under the auspices of the Ambler Social Service committee and the Whitemarsh Valley District Nursing committee, both of which are under the supervision of the Ambler Red Cross, which now covers the district from Chestnut Hill to North Wales and from Spring Mill to Horsham. Mr. Sturgis Ingersoll presided at the meeting, which was attended by a large number of prominent residents of the sections named. The speakers were: Dr. Edward A. Martin, state commissioner of health, who told of the great work that is being done in the community by the district nurse, Miss Willetts, and what excellent results are obtained, if continued, the good that will accrue. In addition, Dr. Martin, also stated that this section is the pioneer in this kind of work, and he was positive that it will be copied by almost every section in the state. Rev. N. B. Groton, rector, of St. Thomas' church, Whitemarsh, also spoke on the nurse work, and told a number of cases in which he was personally interested and what splendid results were procured through the efforts of Miss Willetts. Mr Groton also told how effectively the work is being carried out among the school children and how defective tonsils, teeth, eyes and ears are looked after so that within a short time wonderful results will be apparent. Justice of the Peace Urban, of Ambler, spoke on the social service work as carried on by the committee, pointing out the good that comes from the efforts which are not charity, but rather a helpful and necessary labor. People arrested for crime, who after an investigation are helped in such a manner as to assist them in overcoming their weaknesses and in reestablishing themselves. Juvenile cases are now handled in such a manner, he said, as to bring about the best results at the same time bring happiness and peace to the home. A few adult as well as children cases were reviewed to illustrate just how this helpful work is being carried on. Miss Kate Brusstar,, county probation officer, was also expected to speak, but because of illness she was unable to be present. Members of the two committees are located in all sections of the districts covered and cases are reported and looked after wtihout the usual red tape that characterize such work.

LESSONS FROM HAYDEN CASE.

Ambler Council Hears Report of Its Committee.

Former Careless Methods Scored—Employes to Be Now Paid by Check—Complete Time Book to Be Kept—Wm. J. Brown to Fill Hayden's Seat.

The investigation committee, appointed some time ago to ascertain if there have been any irregularities in the conduct of the Ambler borough highway affairs, under the chairmanship of A. R. Hayden, filed its report last Wednesday evening at the regular monthly session of council, which was attended by President H. C. Biddle, Joseph Cavalier, William Hough, Richard Murfit, Robert Bouse, J. Walter Lauer and James Gillin. The only absentee was Joseph J. Diver. Burgess Allen was also present, as well as Solicitor Harold G. Knight. The committee appointed to make the investigation comprised of Messrs. Murfit, Lauer, Diver and Cavalier, and assisting with the work were Treasurer Samuel A. Faust, Clerk Johnson and Solicitor Knight. The report in part is to the effect that the committee held several meetings and had gone into the matter carefully and find that the borough has not suffered in anyway, but rather it has been fairly dealt with, in so far as the committee was able to ascertain. The work done for the borough by the highway committee was divided into three heads: supplies, hauling and labor. Of the first, the committee found that all supplies were purchased direct from reputable firms and directly on order and all bills were paid direct. Therefore no irregularities were discovered under this head. With regard to the hauling the committee had this to say: During 1920 and 1921 the hauling for the borough was largely done by teams supposed to have belonged to John Tompkins, but which were actually the property of Arthur R. Hayden. There was also a motor truck hired for hauling stone, which was in the name of Hedrick. However, this work seems to have been properly done and properly charged. During the summer of 1920 and the spring of 1921 a steam roller belonging to the state was used on the borough streets. No charge was made for the use of this roller, the time of the men operating only being charged up to the borough. The operators were Mr. Rineer and Mr. Small, both men of whom say that they never received any money from the borough. Albert Kulp, highway commissioner, stated that the money for these men was collected from the borough treasurer and paid over to Mr. Hayden. The great bulk of the hauling during 1920-21 was done by the teams of Mr. Hayden under the name of John Tompkins. The latter testified before the committee that he never owned a team and that Hayden made out the bills for the teams, and at Hayden's request he approved the bills and endorsed the checks, which he handed back to Mr. Hayden. The committee further states in its report that there is no way of ascertaining the correctness of these bills, as the only report kept for the time of the teams employed was by Street Commissioner Kulp, who testified that about the first of the year he destroyed the pages in his book on which the records were kept. The committee also added that Mr. Hayden, in hiring these teams to the borough, while a member of council was a direct violation of the Act of Assembly of 1860.

So far as the hauling is concerned the committee is unable to say whether the borough has received the service for which it has paid. However, from the evidence given by the men who drove the teams the bills as rendered are correct. The committee went on to say that an examination of the meagre records in possession of the clerk for labor performed on the streets proves that the accounts of the highway committee and commissioner were kept in an improper careless, negligent and unsatisfactory manner. Mr. Kulp was appointed commissioner in April, 1920, and from that time until the following June of the same year his records were kept in a fairly satisfactory manner. The names of the men and the amounts due each were set forth in his weekly report, and so far as the committee is able to ascertain these records are correct to June 1920. In June, 1920, however, a change was made in the way of keeping the accounts Mr. Kulp's name appeared on each report and in addition, an item under "extra help" and amounts paid out under his head by the borough were from $10 to $180. Mr. Kulp stated that the change was made in keeping the records at the suggestion of Mr. Hayden. Mr. Kulp could not state for a certainty who performed this labor under "extra help," and he has no records, whatever, from which it is possible to tell who the "extra help" were and how long they worked. The manner in which these bills, for "extra help" were made out is loose and careless in the extreme, the report stated. The report continued by stating that Kulp and Hayden were accustomed to confer on Saturdays, figure out how much was due the men for the week, total this under the head of "extra help" and collect from the borough. The money was received by Mr. Kulp, who then retained sufficient to pay himself and such men as were regularly employed by him, and the balance was turned over to Mr. Hayden. On the North Main street job in November, 1920, the committee found that Mr. Hayden collected considerable money for "extra help." The money was handed to him by Kulp to pay the men on the job. Only two men testified before the committee that they were paid by Hayden at the time they were employed on the North Main street job. In closing its report the committee states that Hayden and the street commissioner are open to criticism for their neglect of duty with regard to the above, and in submitting the report the committee suggests the following: That hereafter all employes of the borough be paid by check directly by the borough and that a complete time book be kept by the street commissioner of the men em- and the hours worked each day. After a discussion the report of the committee was ordered spread on the minutes of the meeting and all other data thereto be filed.

The grandstand on Lindenwold field was the subject of discussion directly after Chairman Biddle called the members to order. Council has dealt with this question at a number of prior meetings, but it appears that no conclusion was arrived at. Resident of the section desire the stand to be removed contending that it is an eyesore and is also being used for immoral purposes. The Keasbey and Mattison association which uses the field states that it will remove the stand to another part of the field.

Mr. Gillin of the building permit committee presented a resolution giving permission to the association to remove the stand elsewhere in the field, but before so doing the association be requested to submit plans of the new stand. This was objected to by Mr. Murfit, and Mr. Gillin withdrew his motion. Later the same motion was put by Mr. Murfit and carried. William J. Devine, who was present, intimated that if there was much more discussion probably the best remedy would be to erect a high board fence about the field, however, Mr. Devine stated that if the borough would give one of his watchman the authority he would patrol the field at night and arrest all offenders. Council agreed to Mr. Devine's suggestion with regard to the watchman.

Mr. Gillin, who succeeded Mr. Hayden as chairman of the highway committee, reported that the work of patching North Spring Garden street has been partly completed and that the cost of the same is as follows: The amount previously spent on this street by Hayden was $120; team and labor, $125; material, $230, total, $475. Mr. Gillin informed council that the work and material yet to be done and used on the street, as estimated, will bring the total cost up to $715 which is about $200 higher than estimated by council. Mr. Cavalier in objecting to spending so much money on a patch job said that council was informed by the previous chairman of the highway committee that a scarifier and roller could not be had, because the state had the only one in use in this section, when the fact of the matter is that both Upper Dublin and Lower Gwynedd twp.'s, each has one in use at this time and from a conversation he had with the road masters of these township the borough could have the scarifier at any time. Mr. Cavalier in conclusion stated that inasmuch as the work of patching has progressed so far it will have to be continued. Mr. Gillin in reply said he believed that a good job is being made and the work will last at least two years. Continuing his report, Mr. Gillin informed council that some of the holes on Spring Garden street have been patched, some of these holes were caused by the Philadelphia Suburban Gas and Electric company opening the street and which has agreed to pay for the repairs and in due time a bill will be forwarded for this work. Mr. Gillin said the payroll for the last four weeks amounted to $238.45. The report of the chairman of the highway committee was accepted. Mr. Knight formed the members that he has received a copy of the new Act of Assembly with regard to increasing the tax rate for borough purposes, and the members may now advance the tax rate to 15 mills. In order to consider an amendment to the ordinance already passed by council, a special meeting will be held, at which time the daylight saving question will be considered. It is likely that an increase of 2 1-2 mills will be made, which will make the borough tax rate 12 1-2 mills. Mr. Cavalier presented the usual light report which showed a number of lights not burning during the month. The condition of the intersection of the Bethlehem pike and Euclid avenue was brought up by Mr. Hough. Mr. Hough informed council that the road is in a bad condition. The matter will be reported to the proper authorities.

The balance in the hands of the treasurer amounting to but $118, the proper officials were authorized to borrow $1000. The committee to consider the complaints with regard to the collection of garbage, stated that the matter is now being attended to and recommended that all monies due the collector be paid,. Chief of Police Richard S. Ford presented a report, showing a number of pavements in the borough in a dangerous condition Council will pass an ordinance looking towards remedying this condition.

William Brown was elected a member of council to serve out the unexpired term of A. R Hayden, resigned. Bills amounting to $545.07 were ordered paid.

Murderess Not Free.

The effort of Samuel Mandatto, of Germantown, to get his wife, Josephine Mandatto, out of the state hospital for the insane at Norristown wailed, after a hearing in court, on Tuesday. She is 19 years old and has three children, the oldest four years. Last summer she went to Williams station, near Plymouth Meeting, and shot to death her brother-in-law, who, she claimed, had circulated stories about her character. She shot him down in the roadway. In November session of criminal court a jury found the woman not guilty of murder on the grounds of instanity. Judge Miller, accordingly, committed her to the state hospital, to which she was admitted on Dec. 4th.

Judge Defends German Loyal to Fatherland.

When Christian Frederick Engelhardt, of Conshohocken, admitted in Montgomery county Naturalization court that he had offered his services to Germany at the outbreak of the war in 1914, United States Examiner Clark opposed his being admitted to citizenship.

"Can you urge no more substantial grounds than this?" asked Judge J. F. Miller. "We all know human nature, and know that it would have been but natural for a man, when his native country was at war, to offer his services. What, may I ask you, was the impropriety of this? This was in 1914 when our persident was urging us to be neutral even in thought," remarked the judge.

The United States attorney insisted he opposed the admission on the finds that his registry with the man consul indicated where his sympathies lay. After further argument it was found that John J. Bickings, one of his vouchers, had not known him the number of years required at the time his petition was filed. The application was, therefore, dismissed with instructions to file another petition for hearing at the September term.

Cannot Annex Swedeland.

The borough of Bridgeport cannot annex Swedesburg under the ordinance passed some time ago, according to a decree of the court handed down by Judge Swartz in the equity proceedings brought by John C. Pickawaik and other residents of the village against the borough to restrain it from incorporating the community.

The bill asked that a decree be entered declaring the ordinance to be illegal and void.

The court finds that there was not statute in force at the time the proposed ordinance was passed "that enabled or authorized the borough of Bridgeport to annex adjacent territory upon the application of freehold owners."

Two legal questions were raised under the pleadings before the court:

First, had the borough of Bridgeport any power or authority to annex the territory described through the passage of an ordinance.

Secondly, was the ordinance a legal enactment when no petition for the annexation was presented to borough council until the ordinance was up for passage upon the third reading.

First Fair Assesson for County Reports.

Miss Jane Kelly, the first woman assessor in Montgomery county, has made her report of May registration to the county commissioners. Miss Kelly was appointed for the Second ward of West Conshohocken. The only thing that annoyed the lady was the typagraphy of her territory.

"How do you like your job?" asked Joseph Jervis, clerk to the County Controller, as he accepted her bill for $80.27.

"It would be all right if it was not for the hills," replied the good-looking registrar.

Miss Kelly was allowed $5 a day for 16 days work and 27 cents mileage, which may be some inducement for others of the sex to make a try for a similar job.

The concrete on the pike has been laid as far north as Valley Green road.

William Gerstlauer and wife, Miss Mary Flaherty, of this place; Miss Jennie McGreggan, of Philadelphia, and Webster Stowman, of Germantown, motored to Atlantic City Sunday. The return trip was made the same day.

Elmer Ott has returned to his home in New Egypt, N. J., after spending some time here as the guest of his sister, Mrs. Harry Dokenwadel.

H. A. Clark and family spent Sunday visiting relatives in Chester county.

Earnest Hemming, who has been ill and confiend to his home, has sufficiently recovered to be about.

Charles Wheeler and daughter, of New Jersey, visited at the home of Mrs. Charles McCool on Sunday.

William Goss, who has been ill with tonsilitis, has recovered sufficiently to be about again.

The monthly meeting of Fuortown Fire company was held last Thursday evening with a fair attendance of the members being present. In addition to the regular routine business it was decided to sell off the ground belonging to the company in the rear of its present property. A notice will be sent to every member urging him to attend the next meeting of the company, when final action on this question will be taken. The ground offered will be put up at public auction. Through the kindness of Peter Sorensen the company has received a steel tower which will answer a two-fold purpose. The alarm bell will be put at the top and it will also be used for drying the hose. The siren whistle will not be erected at present, as it is believed to be the best policy to wait until the company erects its new home.

On Tuesday evening the regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid society and the session of Springfield Presbyterian church was held. Services next Sunday morning will be held as usual in the afternoon. In the evening Children's day exercises will be held by the Sabbath school and an interesting program has been arranged.

Local residents and the churches have adopted daylight saving while the postoffice and at the railroad station standard time is employed.

George Snyder and a party of Philadelphia friends enjoyed a week-end trip to Atlantic City. They report the weather cool and unpleasant.

The Chestnut Hill Baseball club of the Montgomery County league has been putting up a wonderful game since the opening season, winning four and losing but two of the six games. Under Manager Bennis the boys appear to be going at top speed, and it will take a good club to stop them. Next Saturday afternoon the locals will play at Ambler, and it is likely that a large delegation of rooters will accompany the team.

Services at the Zion Lutheran church are held according to daylight saving plan. The pastor's father, Rev. M. P. Hocker, D. D., of Middletown, will preach next Sunday at 10.45 a. m. Infant baptism will be administered. Children's day exercises will be rendered by the Sunday school at 7.45 p. m. Brotherhood meets Thursday evening at the home of Styer brothers, Germantown.

There will be a meeting of the Erdenheim-Flourtown Civic Association this Thursday evening in the Flourtown school house. The meeting will be of more than ordinary importance to the citizens of the community who should not fail to be present. The gas rate question is to come up for consideration, and the meeting will be addressed on this matter by Mr. Graham of the Citizens' committee of neighboring communities.

The members of the Ladies' Auxilary to the fire company, have adjourned their regular monthly meeting until September.

CENTRE SQUARE.

Frank Lutter and family, of Wycombe, were the guests of Joseph Zornek and family on Sunday.

The Skippack pike, between DeKalb Street pike and Hangstorfer road, has been closed to travel. The work on the former pike has now advanced far as Zimmerman road, and with favorable weather and a sufficient quantity of stone the work will likely be completed to Centre Square by the latter part of next week.

The carnival of the Centre Square Fire company held last Friday and Saturday was a splendid success. The attendance was large and everybody had a good time. It is believed that about $600 will be realized.

Miss Mary Slough, of Norristown, was a week-end guest of Mrs. Harry Cassel. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Curll and son, also of Norristown, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Cassel.

Next Saturday evening in Farmer's hall at Centre Point, the local Grange will render the play, "In Old New England," which was given here some time ago with excellent success, for the benefit of Centre Point Grange.

Harry Hafner, local painter, is now painting the Rossiter property.

The frame work of Mrs. Abraham Unruh's new house is about up.

Quite a number of our residents attended the wedding in St. Helena's Catholic church last Wednesday evening when Miss Anna Hynes became the bride of Mr. James Feeney, of Norristown. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hynes, of Penn Square. A brother of the groom was best man, and Miss Harriett Hynes, a sister of the bride, was made of honor. Mr. and Mrs. Feeney will reside in their new home on Burnside avenue, Jeffersonville.

Harvey Unruh has been on the sick list.

About 25 members of Centre Square Odd Fellows' lodge left here Tuesday at noon in Momme brothers' large auto truck for Philadelphia, where they took part in the Odd Fellows' parade. The local members' uniform consisted of a white hat, shirt and trousers, black coat and tie, and each member carried a cane.

Mrs. Louden is reported to be ill and confined to her home, suffering from tonsilitis.

The Knoll property is now being lathed and made ready for the pebble-dashing.

A gasoline tank has been installed in front of Belfry store.

Daylight saving is still an open question here, and many of the residents despite the fact many local places have adopted it, still hold to standard time.

The regular monthly meeting of Centre Square Fire company was held last Thursday evening with a large attendance. The usual routine business was transacted.

A number of Reading people spent Memorial day with their former pastor Rev. C. C. Snyder, and family, Centre Square, and enjoyed themselves in various sports and games on the beautiful lawn surrounding old historic St. John's Lutheran church. The threatening weather in the morning prevented them from preparing the tables on the lawn. Hence they were placed on the spacious parsonage porch, where a bountiful dinner was enjoyed by all. In the afternoon the sun shone forth in all splendor and the cameras were busy taking pictures of the church, parsonage and the group. When the hour of leaving came, all felt the day had passed far too rapidly. Their coming assured the pastor and family that they had not been forgotten and brought back many of pleasant associations in the church, Sunday school and social functions of the past few years. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gries and son John, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hassler and daughter Mary, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brosman, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Brosman, Miss Emma Brosman, Dr. and Mrs. Morris D. Yoder and daughter Betty Mae.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Wood and Miss Ella M. Clough of Philadelphia called at the parsonage and dined with the above named party.

Local fans will remember Hetzel as the pitcher who was in the box for Ambler against the Hilldale giants last summer and who gave a wonderful exhibition against the colored professionals. Hetzel will be on the firing line Saturday against Chestnut Hill. In addition to Hetzel there will be at least two other new players in the local team's line-up. The Hillers are now playing great ball, and it is reported that a large delegation of rooters will be here from Germantown and Chestnut Hill to see the battle. The game will start at 3.30, and President Pike has promised to assign two of his umpires to referee the game.

Council, at a special meeting Monday evening attended to several matters left over from the regular meet held last Wednesday evening, among which was the tax rate, which was increased from 10 to 12 mills. The increase in the tax rate will give the borough about $4000, as the assessed valuation totals about $2,000,000. With careful management during the present year year there is a possibility of council cleaning up the present floating indebtedness. Another matter considered was the placing of the highway work on a more business-like basis. The street commissioner in the future will be obliged to keep careful records of all work done on the streets, and who the men are, and the cost of the work on each particular street. The men are to be paid every two weeks by check, and the system adopted is that the commissioner must present to the clerk of council the name of each workman, and the clerk in turn will make out a voucher, which will be presented to the treasurer, who will then issue a check thereon, in favor of the individual. All records kept by the commissioner are the property of the borough and are not to be destroyed, but to be kept in regular order and handed over when called for. The burgess was given the authority to employ an extra policeman on Saturday afternoons and evenings and on other special occasions.

misses seeing that parade is going to be sorry. All the other committees for the day are hard at work and the central committee is meeting once every week, keeping all the activities coordinated, so that nothing will be overlooked for the safety, enjoyment and pleasure of all those who stay in Oreland on the nation's birthday. Above all, it is gratifying the way the finances are shaping up. If you have not yet been approached by any of this committee, look up some of these men: Messrs. Cressman, Bowen, Potter and A. L. Aiman. Anyone of them will be pleased to note you down for the sum you are willing to subscribe to make the celebration a success. It is the desire that everybody should have an opportunity to help and have a share in this fund. Whatever funds are left over, will be held as a nucleus for next year's celebration.

Despite her four-score years and one, Mrs. Bright is still quite active.

The mail service at Ambler has been conveniently arranged to suit the daylight saving schedule. All mails have been advanced one hour, with the exception of the noon and the 6.05 p. m. mails to Philadelphia, which are in accordance with eastern standard time. However, the trolley mail service has not as yet been adjusted, and the deliveries north and south have caused complaints. Postmaster Gusman has prepared a tentative schedule for the trolley deliveries, which he is submitting to the postal autorities this Wednesday for approval, and it is believed the service will be revised satisfactorily all around.

The Home and School league held its monthly meeting on Tuesday evening at the close of the motion picture entertainment given by the high school alumni. The meeting was held in the Forest avenue school building, and the president, J. Walter Lauer, presided. There was a good attendance of the members, who listened to an interesting address on Russia, delivered by the Rev. Mr. Rudd, rector of Trinity Memorial church. A short business meeting was held prior to Mr. Rudd's address. A splendid report was received from the school visiting committee, as to their observation. The league has also decided to change the meeting nights to the second Thursday evening of each month. However, this will not be done until next fall. Gas Fight Cooperation Needed.

Immediate action is imperative on the part of Ambler's citizens who have not yet contributed their share toward the meritorious fight now being waged for lower gas rates.

At a recent central committee meeting, held in Wyncote, attended by ladies of the various community organizations, the great necessity for each town,, in the so-called Jenkintown district of the Philadelphia Suburban Gas and Electric Co., to raise its full quota of funds, was most emphatically presented. There is little doubt that success in the end, will attend the earnest efforts of those who are so generously giving their time and energy to this worthy cause, provided sufficient money is collected or contributed to bring about this result. Even a slight reduction in gas rates will insure to each contributor to this cause, the return of the money he or she has given, so no one sohuld fail to realize the full intent and purpose of support.

Ambler is one of the few towns in this well organized fight which has failed to hand in its required amount of money. Surely we are as well able to do our bit proportionately as are any of our neighboring boroughs.

If you have been unintentionally overlooked leave the most you can possibly afford at either of the banks. If you are called upon personally in the next few days for a contribution loan all you can conveniently loan (if we succeed you'll get your money back) as Ambler must not be found wanting in a worthy cause of this character.

Some have contributed only $1 who could well afford loaning $3 or $5. Many of these good citizens will be called upon to give a second time and those who are, should, when at all possible and in justice to those who have contributed heavily, give again that we may do, in full, all that is rightly expected of us.

The Civic Protection Association of Ambler urges your individual attention and support as proper compensation for the earnest efforts its members have so commendably and unselfishly contributed to a cause affecting each gas and electric consumer within the jurisdiction. This appeal should not be lightly cast aside and forgetten.

ORELAND.

If there were any one thing needed to show that the people of Oreland are solidly behind the celebration for the 4th of July, that event took place last Saturday evening when there was a 100 per cent attendance of the parade committee, which numbers 20 men. The meeting was held at the home of Mr. Calverly, Sr., and was full of pep and ginger from the start to the finish. From all accounts, that is the way the parade is going to be run off. There are going to be many novelties, and anyone who

The First National Bank of Ambler offers the following cash prizes to be competed for by depositors: 5 acres or more of corn, first prize, $50; second prize, $25; third prize, $10; best one acre, $25. Government bulletins with regard to the selection of seed, preparation of the ground, fertilization and cultivation may be secured free on application to the bank. An increasing interest among corn growers has been evidenced in these contests conducted by the bank for several years past. Growers may enter their fields at any time in the contest, but probably at the planting season is preferable because of the care and attention that can then be exercised over the growing crop during the whole season. Any grower may enter his name by complying to the above requirements. In the fall a committee of the board of directors from the institution visits the fields entered, and by observation, measurement and actual test determines the winners.

The members of the class or 1921, of the Ambler high school performed admirably last Wednesday evening when the annual class day exercises of the school was held. The event was held in the Ambler opera house and was attended by a large number of the residents of the borough and vicinity, who enjoyed the exercises, as evidence by the applause The stage setting wsa a forest camping scene ,and with the members of the class seated about it presented altogether a very beautiful picture. The president of the class, Clinton Rapp, delivered his address in a splendid manner, as was also presented the class history by Miss Clara Gray. The class will was quite novel and was well given by Russell Pullinger, as were the parts by Miss Flora Heckler and Miss Jane Griffith. The prophecy, by Miss Phoebe Hollingsworth, who was dressed as a gypsy, was well prepared and given in a most excellent manner. The presentations to the graduates by Miss Margaret Acuff and Miss Julia Compton were quite humorous and was an enjoyable feature. Russell Pullinger, as the youngest member of the class, was fittingly recognized in the gifts. Among the other enjoyable features was the singing of the school quartet and the duet by Miss Jane Griffith and Louis Stevens. Both are splendid vocalists and Miss Griffith's charming voice has been heard in public several times during the past year. The class song was the closing number of this part of the program. An amusing play entitled, "The Florist Shop," was well given by the graduates, the leading part being taken by Miss Mida Gelbert, who was seen as "Maude," Florist's bookkeeper . Others who also performed most creditably were: Russell Davis, Gottfried Metzler, Miss Florence Hedrick and Russell Pullinger. The officers and members of the class are: President, Clinton Rapp; vice president, Gottfried Metzler; secretary, Miss Florence Hedrick; treasurer, Miss Jane Griffith, Miss Margaret Acuff, Miss Esther Chavis, Miss Julia O. Compton, Russell A. Davis, Mida Gelbert Clara M. Gray, Flora M. Heckler Phoebe A. Hollingsworth, Elizubeth W. Krauskopf, Martha R. McConnell, Russell Y. Pullinger, F. Irene Smith, L. Louis Stevens. For the first time the school orchestra was heard on this occasion and the numbers were greatly enjoyed.

Mrs. Collyer, of Brooklyn, has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Garre, and family, Lindenwold terrace.

FIRE COMPANIES GOOD TEST.

Springfield Township Firemen Were Called Out

Flourtown and Wyndham Companies Respond With Appartus—Oreland Machine Being Overhauled— Commissioners Meet.

A very satisfactory test of the Springfield township fire companies was made on Wednesday evening of last week, when the fire committee of the township summoned the firemen to an imaginary blaze at the barn of Stevenson Crothers, on Paper Mill road east of Montgomery avenue, which is a central location for the three companies.

The alarm was sent to each company by telephone at 9.50 p. m. Flourtown Fire company recahed the scene in 7 1-2 minutes, Wyndmoor with two machines in 10 minutes, and unfortunately the Oreland machine is in the shop being overhauled, a fact which was not known when the call was made.

The companies were congratulated by the township commissioners, who witnessed the test, and were then dismissed.

The board of commissioners met in regular monthly session earlier in the evening, with Vice President Aiman in the chair, and with Messrs. Gordon and Campbell also in attendance.

After the reading of the minutes of the meeting on May 4, the report of the board of health was read showing two cases of mumps, and one each of diphtheria and measles.

The police report showed 10 bulbs renewed and also gave detailed report of the accidnet on Stenton avenue.

Solicitor Stahlnecker informed the board that a new bill has become a law in the state abolishing the discount on road taxes, and providing a penalty of one per cent added every month for nonpayment.

The township treasurer, Wm. J. Bysher, reported as follows: Balance at last report, $1507.77; temporary loan $2000; street permit, $3.50; jitney license, $10; oil sold, $30.50; Philadelphia Electric Co., $25; 1920 taxes, $269.32; 1921 taxes, $27,966.23; orders paid, $2364,12; balance, $29,448.20. A total of $713.75 in 1920 taxes remain uncollected.

Road Master Harner reported Hawes lane improved by the material secured from the tracks of the Lehigh Valley Transit company in the neighborhood. A pipe at Pleasant and Queen streets is stopped up, and changes will be made whereby the grade will enable it to clean itself. Mermaid lane, between Queen street and Cheltenham road is washed and needs replacing of material, rolling and then oiling. Mill road gutters have been filled, thereby adding to safety of the public.

Bills amounting to $2307.90 and the $10,000 in temporary loans were ordered paid off.

It was stated that a road in the extreme westerly end of the township was repaired by the Whitemarsh township road force and a bill rendered therefor, the Hamilton Paper mill having donated pipe for the improvement.

An officer will be on duty at Oreland during the July 4 festivities and also on building and loan association nights.

Carson college complained of water draining on the playground as a result of the turnpike improvements, and informed the board that the college and other owners will cooperate in the work of lowering the drain pipe on Grove avenue. The condition will be investigated.

Charles K. Lukens, of Stenton and Wyndmoor avenues, informed the board that he has laid a permanent curb and pavement along his property and asked that the township lay a brick gutter.

Sellersville May Get New Industry.

Sellersville board of trade held a special meeting for the purpose of conferring with a representative of the constructing engineers. Donnel-Zane, of New York city who desires to organize a steel fabricating company to be located at Sellersville.

About 35 representatives of the various vocations in Sellersville, were present and heard the proposition occupying the Board's attention from the lips of the former Sellersville young man, H. J. Zane, Jr., a partner in the Donnel-Zane firm.

Norristown Explosion Solved.

The mystery of the blow-up of the large office of the Norristown Magnesia and Asbestos company, at Norristown on the night of March 8, was solved when Frank Flori, 37 years old of Howellville, it is alleged, confessed before Magistrate Clark, in the presence of District Attorney Renninger and officers of the company, that he placed three sticks of dynamite in the office and blew the place up.

He is said to have explained his act as revenge for the prosecution by the company of his friend. Mike Fazzari, who was sent to jail in February for stealing material from the company's plant. He also says, it is alleged, that Dominick Pasterine, who was sentenced with Fazzari, is innocent, that he Flori helped Fazzari in the robbery.

—A city government for Norristown is being considered.

THE BEGINNING OF A BANK-NOTE

Little Marcia's baby dress though made of the finest linen was ultimately worn threadbare. One day it landed in the rag bag and was sold to the junk dealer. When the rag sorter touched the discarded garment he detected in a flash the fine quality of the flax and set it aside for a journey to the Bureau of Engraving and Printing at Washington. Eventually it became legal tender—a bank-note. Just how is told in one of the beautiful booklets about Our Government which we are sending each month to those interested.

Just send us your name and address and you will receive a copy of every issue of the series without charge.

New Law Governing Dogs

Dog owners of his state will find interest and a warning in a communication from the game commission concerning the new dog law, as follows.

"Some years ago the legislature passed on act making it unlawful to permit dogs to chase game during the breeding season. At that time the only penalty was the danger of having a dog killed. Later the Legislature amended the game law so that a penalty could also be imposed upon the owners or persons harboring dogs chasing game after notice in writing from the game commission or anyone whose duty it is to protect game and wild birds.

"The 1921 legislature has further amended the game law in this respect, known as section 26 of the act of June 7, 1917 so that it is no longer necessary to give dog owners a written notice to restrain dogs during the close season and in order that the dog owners and sportsmen of the commonwealth may quickly become acquainted with this change of the law, we take this means of getting this information before the public at once.

"The act making thec hange was signed only a few days ago and hereafter persons owning or harboring dogs are liable to a fine of $10 for every day they permit their dogs to chase game during the close season and $5 for every bird or rabbit killed without a notice of any sort.

"The special training season is continued, extending from September 1st. to March 1st, Sundays excepted, during which period the training of dogs is permitted so long as they are accompanied by their owner or handler and so long as such owner or handler sees to it that no injury is inflicted upon animals or birds persued and does not carry firearms usually raised at arms length and fired from the shoulder.

"Dogs, especially neglected, half-starved animals, running at large and chasing game during this period destroy far more game of vairous kinds than a large number of sportsmen kill legally during the open season, and in order to protect our young rabbits and birds of all sorts, it is the duty of all officers and sportsmen to see to it that the provisions of this amended law are strictly enforced."

The latter has made every effort to train local boys to play the game, but with only fair success, is no fault of his, as the boys, it is said, do not come out to practice as frequently as they should.

Hard One To Lose.

This was a tough one to lose, however, we had to be satisfied with the short end of 11 to 10 score when Ambler journeyed to Lansdale last Saturday. Our fellows looked like real winners, because they were leading the Lansdalers by four runs in start-is just how the game slipped away from us: Bateman hit safely ni starting the last session, Batten was given a free pass to first, Read hit safely also and the bases were filled. Powell hit to Fuerie and Bateman was out at the plate. Mendenhall flew out on a foul to O'Neil. Now only one man remained between the locals and victory, but that one man certainly was a thorn in Fuerie's side. The latter had two strikes and two balls on the batter, who was our old friend Clancy playing under the name of Russell. Never before did Dame Fortune desert the locals more than she did on this occasion. There were three men on the bases, two men out and the batter with two strikes. Then the batter struck at a wild pitch and befor the ball could be recovered two runs came over the home base. Fuerie again failed to locate the plate for Lindberg who was the next batter up and he got a free pass to first. Fleck then hit to deep center field for a single scoring Powell, Fleck raced to second on the throw in. Cornog set the Lansdale rooters cheering like mad when he hit through Byrne at third, scoring both Russell and Landberg with the tying and winning run. Fuerie was always getting himself in trouble by his lack of control . During the nine periods of play he pitched no fewer than 178 balls and in the last round he delivered 33 of the 178. When averaged up he threw almost 20 balls to an inning. However, in justice to Fuerie it must be stated that Umpire Johnstone who was behind the plate was off in calling them and missed a number of good strikes and had a reliable umpire been behind the rubber, Russell would never have reached first in the ninth inning as he was struck-out fairly.

Manager Amey has promised to show us a couple of more new men next Saturday, and he is going to keep on securing new talent until he has a winning aggregation. Last Saturday he trotted out Baier, who showed up well in playing the outfield and at the bat. However, it is too early to say much about this boy, but there is one thing about his ability to play the game that cannot be denied, and that is that he certainly can hit the ball. In Saturday's game he did more than could be reasonably expected of any one player. In his five trips to the plate he hit three times, scored three runs and was personally responsible for sending three other runners over for sending three other runners over the rubber. In Silverman, Manager Amey showed another new man who also showed up well at short, despite his two errors, and we believe he will make good. The most disappointing part about the club this year is the batting slump that Hallowell has had since the season opened. Everybody knows that George is a good hitter, but even he cannot understand his inability to hit the ball safely. None of the fans is finding fault, but all are pulling hard for George to get back his batting eye and once more become the terror to all pitchers in the league.

The results of other games played in the league were as follows: Chestnut Hill 7, Souderton 1; Doylestown 4, Conshohocken 2. Where they play next Saturday: Chestnut Hill at Ambler, Conshohocken at Souderton, Lansdale at Doylestown.

This is how the games in the Suburban league resulted: Wyndomor 10, Fort Washington 2; Glenside 18, Southampton 1: Hatboro 5, Willow Grove 3. The schedule for next Satur is: Fort Washington at Southampton, Glenside at Willow Grove, Hatboro at Wyndmoor.

Meeting of The North Penn Unofficial Committee.

A meeting of the North Penn unofficial committee of the American Legion will be held June 10, in the Blue Room of the Glenside Restaurant. The committee will be formed of a delegate and an alternate from each of the posts in the North Penn district. Each post sending a delegate will be asked for a temporary assessment of $1 to help defray postage and other minor expenses of the committee. The following is a list of the posts which the committee will communicate with and ask to send delegates:- Ambler, Cheltenham, Glenside, Hatboro, Jenkintown ,Lansdale, North Wales, Souderton, Telford, Whitemarsh, Willow Grove and Wyndmoor.
